

Mathias bill signed

Legislation sponsored by Maryland Senator Charles McC. Mathias Jr., to end four different states of national emergency that gave broad powers to several Presidents is signed by President Ford at the White House. Looking on are Senators Frank Church (left) and Mathias, who cochaired a special Senate committee that produced the legislation, and William Miller (right), a former Mathias staff aide who was committee staff director.

Ford
10-14-76